

AGREEMENT FOR ATTORNEY SERVICES (Criminal Conflicts)

This Agreement is entered into this _____ day of _____ by and between the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense (SCCID) and _____(Attorney).

In consideration of the mutual covenants and promises contained herein, SCCID and Attorney agree as follows:

I. TERM

Subject to the provisions for termination set forth below and in Section XI this agreement will begin on _____ and expires on _____. SCCID reserves the right and authority in its sole discretion to terminate this Agreement for any reason and at any time upon thirty (30) days notice to Attorney. Upon thirty (30) days notice this Agreement shall be null and void and have no further effect whatsoever. However, any egregious conduct shall be grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement. (See Termination Clause, Section XI)

II. SERVICES

- a. SCCID contracts with Attorney for the representation of indigent clients in the category or categories of cases and in the counties as set forth in Attachment A of this Agreement (See Attachment A). If Attorney is excused by a Court from an appointment for good cause shown Attorney does not relinquish the right to continue to receive appointments as provided by Attachment A.
- b. In performing the legal services described in this Agreement, Attorney at all times shall comply with the requirements of the Rules of Professional Conduct, the South Carolina Rules of Court (to include the Appellate Court Rules, Rules of Civil Procedure, Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rules of Evidence, Family Court Rules, Rules of Probate Court, Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules, Rules for the Administrative Law Court Rules), orders or directives of the Courts of this State, applicable South Carolina statutes and all of the uniform policies, guidelines and standards promulgated by SCCID, all of which are hereby expressly incorporated in, merged and made a part of this contract in each and every particular.
- c. Attorney shall render to, and on behalf of the indigent clients he or she represents all professional legal services reasonably required from the time of appointment to and including a final adjudication or disposition. Attorney agrees to timely file and serve a notice of appeal or petition for review and to take such other actions as may be required to protect the indigent client's interests in accordance with the South Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure and applicable statutory law. Pursuant to Rule 264, SCACR, the Attorney shall be responsible for handling the case in the appellate court unless withdrawal is approved by the Court and notice is given as provided in the Rule or there is a substitution of counsel. If the Attorney does not wish to handle the appeal, the Attorney may contact SCCID and ask that the appeal be handled by one of the attorneys that have agreed to handle the appeals in cases covered by this Agreement.

Appeals will be considered to be a new, non-contract case and compensated as outlined in the SCCID Voucher Payment Policy.

- d. In performing any work under this Agreement, Attorney shall provide competent representation to the indigent client. Competent representation requires the legal knowledge, skill, thoroughness and preparedness reasonably necessary for that representation. Attorney's business relationships outside of this agreement shall not interfere with the performance of the services specified herein.
- e. Notification of Appointment: Within fifteen (15) days of being appointed to a case, Attorney must register the case on the SCCID website as required by the South Carolina Supreme Court (Order dated September 29, 2006) and in accordance with the policies and guidelines of SCCID. Failure to timely and fully register each assigned case as required, including any updates of required data, may be grounds for termination of this Agreement and/or considered a waiver of payment of attorney fees if more than 30 days have passed from receipt of the order of appointment without approval from SCCID, in the discretion of SCCID. A case is considered registered when the attorney enters the case information on the SCCID website and submit the voucher for payment.
- f. If the appointment of Attorney is terminated due to the indigent client subsequently obtaining private counsel; or if the indigent client does not qualify or continue to qualify as indigent, Attorney shall still be entitled only to compensation for fees and expenses properly and reasonably incurred.
- g. If for any reason the Court permits Attorney to withdraw or if Attorney is otherwise removed from a case prior to full performance of the duties for reasons other than breach of duty or the provisions of Section XI, Attorney may receive compensation for Attorney's fees at the statutory rate for work already satisfactorily performed and reasonably incurred. Attorney may be required to reimburse SCCID the difference of the flat fee paid and the compensation reasonably incurred. Subject to the attorney-client and the work-product privilege, if Attorney withdraws or is removed from the case Attorney shall deliver all files, notes, documents and research related to the representation of the client to the successor attorney within 15 days after receiving notice from the successor attorney.
- h. Attorney agrees to maintain and to operate continuously throughout the term of this Agreement with at least the minimum number of staff required to deliver the legal services outlined herein.
- i. Attorney shall report within 5 days to SCCID the continuance of any proceedings and the reason for that continuance.
- j. At the conclusion of the case, Attorney agrees to enter, or upload, his or her time records for the case on the SCCID website and close the case on the site.

III. COMPENSATION / EXPENSES/ EXPERT AND OTHER SERVICES

a. For services rendered SCCID agrees to pay Attorney, or his/her designee, a flat fee of $900 (Nine Hundred Dollars) per case. Subject to the case registration provisions of Section II(e) herein, payment for each true, accurate, and complete voucher for attorney fees, in the form and manner specified by the SCCID Voucher Payment Policy, is due upon receipt. The parties understand that payments are processed through the Comptroller General's Office and SCCID does not control the time frame that payment is processed.

Attorney understands and agrees that SCCID will not pay any voucher for attorney fees for cases appointed to the Attorney in the previous fiscal year unless the case was assigned during the month of June of the previous fiscal year and registered before July 20 of the following fiscal year.

b. A case is defined as an action in which an Attorney has been appointed to represent a client under the terms of this Agreement. A newly assigned case is each new unique client, including a former client with new charges, petitions, or other cause of action but excluding an existing client with new charges, petitions, or other causes of action that are appointed to Attorney pursuant to this Agreement.

c. Attorney understands and agrees that case related expenses are included in the flat fee. Attorney agrees to pay all expenses incidental to the performance of this Agreement including but not limited to all salaries, overhead, and all routine and necessary cost and expenses incurred in providing contract services, including routine travel expenses.

d. All payments are processed through the Comptroller General's Office. The Comptroller General's Office receives liens that have been levied against a person and are required to seize any payments due to the person in order to satisfy the levied lien. SCCID is not a party to the levied lien and the action of the Comptroller General in carrying out its function does not affect the obligations of the Attorney or SCCID under this Contract. With the intent to assist the Attorney, Attorney shall notify SCCID of any liens levied against him/her immediately and SCCID will hold the processing of the Attorney's vouchers for ten (10) days, unless additional time is requested in writing to SCCID, to allow the Attorney an opportunity to resolve the lien to the satisfaction of the Comptroller General's Office.

e. Outside costs and expenses such as expenses for expert witnesses, investigators, scientific tests and other reasonable and necessary expenses Attorney reasonably believes are necessary for a proper representation of client shall be applied for and reimbursed in accordance with laws of the State of South Carolina and the policies of SCCID. Attorney expressly understands that such expenses must be approved by the court prior to being incurred.

- f. Attorney agrees to immediately notify SCCID if at any time during the period of this contract any claim, lawsuit or any other action (civil or criminal) becomes pending against attorney.

V. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR

The parties agree that this Agreement does not create the relationship of employer and employee. This Agreement is not intended to and shall not be construed to create the relationship of agent, servant, employee, partnership, joint venture, or association between SCCID and Attorney. Attorney is, and shall at all times be, deemed an independent contractor and shall be wholly responsible for the manner in which Attorney performs the services required by the terms of this Agreement. Attorney exclusively assumes responsibility for the acts of Attorney's employees, agents, subcontractors, and all others acting at the direction of or on behalf of Attorney, as they relate to the services to be provided under this Agreement. Attorney and Attorney's agents and employees shall not be entitled to any rights or privileges as if employees of SCCID or the State of South Carolina, including but not limited to, compensation, insurance and unemployment insurance. It shall be the sole responsibility of Attorney to comply with all applicable federal, state, county, and municipal statutes, ordinances, rules, and regulations in the performance of Attorney's obligations under this Agreement.

VI. NO ASSIGNMENT

Attorney shall not delegate or assign his or her obligations under this Agreement, whether in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of SCCID. Attorney shall not assign any monies due or to become due to Attorney under this Agreement without the prior written consent of SCCID.

VII. NO PROHIBITION ON PRIVATE PRACTICE

Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Attorney from representing privately retained clients, including clients involved in cases of a similar nature who are not indigent. Attorney shall not be prohibited from engaging in the private practice of law, provided that no private case shall be accepted that may cause a conflict of interest with a case appointed to Attorney under this Agreement.

VIII. EXTERNAL COMPENSATION

Attorney agrees that compensation for matters directly assigned to Attorney and covered under this Agreement shall be the sole compensation received by Attorney for the particular matters. Attorney shall not be precluded from accepting representation of indigents for matters for which he or she is not directly appointed (i.e., on behalf of other counsel) and for matters not covered by this Agreement.

IX. INDEMNIFICATION/ LEGAL MALPRACTICE INSURANCE

Attorney shall indemnify, defend, save, and hold harmless SCCID and the State of South Carolina, their officials, officers, agents, and employees from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, and/or causes of action including court costs and attorney's fees that may hereafter at any time be made or brought by anyone for the purpose of enforcing any claim on account of any injury or damage allegedly caused or occurring to any person or property which may arise, in whole or in part, whether intentional or unintentional, from any willful misconduct, or negligent act or omission of Attorney, Attorney's associates, law partners, agents, or employees during performance under this Agreement. For each attorney furnishing services under this Agreement, prior to the commencement of any representation of a client hereunder, Attorney shall furnish evidence of legal malpractice insurance coverage that is current and in effect of at least $300,000 per claim/$500,000 aggregate and Attorney shall retain such insurance for any liability arising out of the services provided even after the attorney is no longer under contract with SCCID.

X. RECORD RETENTION/AUDIT

Attorney shall keep detailed records to enable SCCID or its agents to verify all costs, expenses and Attorney's time expended representing all indigent clients in cases appointed under this Agreement and shall make such records available to SCCID and its agents at any reasonable time. The records include supporting documentation necessary to adequately evaluate and substantiate payments made under this Agreement. SCCID and/ or its agents may, at its discretion, audit or inspect Attorney's books and financial records relating to services under this Agreement at any and all reasonable times. Attorney agrees to retain and to make available for inspections, upon reasonable notice, all books, statements, ledgers and other financial records relating to services under this Agreement for a period of five (5) years from the date of each payment, or until all Federal or State audits that may relate to each payment are complete for the applicable fiscal year, whichever is later. All financial records shall be made available to SCCID and/ or its agents at Attorney's place of business. The recordkeeping duties under this Agreement are separate and apart from recordkeeping requirements under Rule 407, SCACR (the Rules of Professional Conduct) and Rule 417, SCACR (Financial Recordkeeping).

XI. TERMINATION/ CONTRACT EXPIRATION

This Agreement may be terminated as follows:

- a. In addition to any other remedy authorized by law, SCCID shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days notice to Attorney if in its sole opinion Attorney or Attorney's agents or employees fail to comply with any of the terms of this Agreement to include those terms expressly incorporated and merged into this Agreement. Such failure shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement by Attorney. In the event of breach of duty in a case by Attorney, Attorney shall not be entitled to payment of Attorney's fees and shall reimburse SCCID for fees already received as an initial flat fee except as may be provided by court order. Any egregious conduct shall be grounds for immediate termination.
- b. In the event Attorney is unable to perform this Agreement due to permanent or temporary disability, injury, continuing disabling sickness, or for other similar causes beyond the control of Attorney, then this Agreement may be terminated. In such event Attorney shall take appropriate steps to withdraw from all appointed cases, including filing motions to withdraw as required by South Carolina law. If Attorney is permitted to withdraw or is terminated in accordance with Section XI(a) from an appointed case, work materials that are not protected by the attorney/client privilege and the work-product privilege shall be turned over to such attorneys as may be subsequently appointed by the Court.
- c. SCCID may, in its sole and absolute discretion, terminate this Agreement for any reason upon thirty (30) days written notice to Attorney. Attorney may, in Attorney's absolute discretion, terminate this Agreement without cause upon thirty (30) days written notice to SCCID provided that Attorney shall be responsible for all existing obligations to clients already appointed to pursuant to this Agreement.
- d. Attorney understands that because the flat fee compensation is intended to cover the entire case any termination in accordance with Section XI(c), or by expiration of this Agreement, does not affect the existing obligations to clients already assigned pursuant to this Agreement and attorneys continuing duty shall continue until final adjudication or disposition as described in Section II(c). In the event, Attorney terminates this Agreement in accordance with Section XI(c) and is not able to continue representing the assigned client(s), Attorney understands that he may be required to reimburse SCCID all or a portion of the flat fee paid based upon time compensation at the statutory rate for work already satisfactorily performed.

e. Notice of termination of this Agreement must be given to the other party in writing, sent by certified or registered United States mail, with return receipt requested, addressed to the party for whom it is intended, delivery restricted to the addressee, at the place last specified for giving of notice in compliance with the provisions of this paragraph.
